REACHING TRIBES CLOSER TO HOME

Official Newsletter of Galcom International, USA

Dear Friends of Galcom,

Having celebrated multiple Christian radio victories outside the USA in recent reports, this month we focus on something much closer to home.

A year ago, on August 11, 2025, a deep burden for Native Americans who languish on Indian reservations was sensed and assumed by our intercessory prayer group. Since our radio engineering colleague Dan Hatfield has installed over 30 Christian FM stations among tribes in Canada, we contacted him right away.

Dan responded through tears, saying, “the Holy Spirit is amazing!” He had already set up KJCD FM on the worst reservation in the USA for drugs, alcohol, hopelessness, and abuse at Pine Ridge, South Dakota. Sadly, it went off the air some time ago when the local operator shut it down. Dan had just been praying about how to revive the station.

Soon after we joined Dan and his wife Alana in this prayer burden, some important events related to this station began to accelerate, and the ranch that housed the radio station was miraculously acquired by Lakota House of Hope, a Christ-centered ministry headed by Janet Napper that establishes safe houses for sexually exploited women.

And hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us. (Romans 5:5 NIV)

She recently gave us this update:

After traveling to Pine Ridge Native American Reservation, by a miracle, God graciously entrusted over 130 acres of land in the poorest zip code in America to our ministry so women who have been sexually exploited can find healing restoration through the love of Christ. Little did we know that the property also came with the unused RADIO STATION KJCD 92.9 FM! We immediately recognized that resurrecting KJCD 92.9 FM was foundational to bringing the hope of Jesus Christ across the Pine Ridge reservation community. God brought Dan and Alana Hatfield to us to re-launch KJCD 92.9 FM!

The previous studio needed to be relocated and improved, so Dan and Alana flew down to Pine Ridge from Minnesota on June 11 where they and willing helpers spent 5 days in the new studio location constructing the interior walls and framing in the windows with new frames built from scratch and installing the new door. Then, they set up the radio equipment and quickly made the whole studio functional and operational. Thanks to these efforts, KJCD is now back ON AIR fulfilling its original gospel broadcasting purpose 24/7—a very welcome and direct answer to prayer!

An intriguing fact is that KJCD is very close to the site where the last hope of Native Americans to retain their ancestral way of life was extinguished at the Battle of Wounded Knee in 1890. Oglala Lakota leader Black Elk said afterwards, "A people's dream died there....There is no center any longer, and the sacred tree is dead." Might God be raising up the Lakota House of Hope and KJCD 92.9 FM to give this tribe an everlasting hope that's built upon the unshakeable foundation of Jesus Christ?

Thank you, Galcom partners, for partnering with us in obedience to the Lord. You are appreciated! For more, visit www.galcomusa.com.

INTERCESSORS

Please pray:

- that souls will be saved, hearts transformed, families restored, and generations changed for God's glory.
- that remaining work on the studio be completed soon.
- for ON AIR presenters Dale McGaa and Ata Jack.
- that the radio and rescue ministries at Pine Ridge will inspire true revival on other reservations.
- that Galcom radios tuned to 92.9 FM will be useful for evangelism, discipleship, and emotional healing through Christ.
